The Lesson to Arthur.

The New York Herald Ind. rep. says: The people have spoken and have given their opinion about River and Harbor and other jobs, about Hubbell assessments, about oppressive and needless taxation, and about federal interference and dictation in politics. Mr. Jay Hubbell and his associates in the dirty work of robbing the government clerks of their wages; Mr. Robeson and his associates in River and Harbor and other jobs; Mr. Kason, Senator Hoar and his associates, who so insolently refused to relieve the people from oppressive and unnecessary taxes—all these heard from the people yesterday. President Arthur also heard from the people. Mr. Cleveland's majority against Mr. Arthur's candidate in this State can scarcely run below one hundred and twenty-five thousand, and may turn out even greater. Mr. Patterson's plurality in Pennsylvania over the Cameron-Arthur candidate will probably reach twenty-five thousand, and may exceed that. Mr. Arthur dictated the nomination of Mr. Folger, contrary to the advice of his true friends, and Mr. Folger is "snowed under" so deep that a dozen "machines" could not dig him out in a dozen years. An independent journal like the Herald, which speaks the truth and has no political axes to grind, naturally gives to the President, whoever he may be, or of whatever party, a generous support so long as his course deserves it. When Mr. Arthur, departing from his prudent and conservative earlier policy, began to meddle in the politics of Pennsylvania and New York, the Herald was the first to warn him that he was making a grave mistake. In the light of yesterday's vote he can hardly fail to see that he has blundered. From to-day on the President will be a target for the abuse of a good many republican organs. He can expect no mercy from the faction which from the first has shown him virulent dislike. He has erred, let him repent and he need not despair of the future. But the repentance must be real. Mr. Arthur must "unload." He will not be reelected, but he may very surely, by a wise public policy, rally the defeated republicans, reunite the party for 1884, and enable it, even if it does not elect its candidate, to present a formidable opposition in Congress to a democratic administration.

Early Hours the Style.

And what do you think? They say that early hours are to be a la mode this Winter; that midnight is to pass a period to nearly all festive occasions. The bi-centennial and its attendant revival of bygone customs may have had something to do with this; at all events, it is a mark of vulgarity to stay late. To prolong an affair into the morning hours is to make a kind of orgy of it, and it looks—it really does—as though one never expected to have a good time again and meant to have the best of it. But, unhappily, there is a fashion prevailing which flies in the face of this new institution. I refer to the "coquet parties," which are at their height only when our celestial visitor is in the zenith, and which do not break up until his streaming tail vanishes from the horizon. Of course it is absurd to suppose that these larks have their origin in a thirst for astronomical lore; but it pleased society to pretend as much, and hence we have nocturnal delegations to the Observatory with a supper and a dance to give the old comet a send off!—[Pittsburg Telegraph.]

"An American," says an exchange, "may not be so elegant at a dinner party, but he will not ride a half day in a railway car without speaking to his fellow passenger at his elbow, as the Englishman will." No indeed he will not; for George he will not. How often, oh, how often, have we wished that he would. But he won't. He will pounce upon a stranger whom he has never seen before in all his life and talk him deaf, dumb and blind in fifty miles. Catch an American holding his mouth shut when he has a chance to talk to some man who doesn't want to be talked to.

SURE CURE FOR CORNS.—Take one-fourth cup of strong vinegar, crumb finely into it some bread. Let stand half an hour, until it softens into a good poultice. Then apply, on retiring at night. In the morning the soreness will be gone, and the corn can be picked out. If the corn is a very obstinate one, it may require two or more applications to effect a cure.

A Georgia man who was kicked to death by a mule has this epitaph on his tombstone: "Blame not the beast who sent me to the dust, for the God of nature said he must."

Food Makes the Man.

Speaking roughly, says the Lancet, about three-fourths by weight, of the body of man is constituted by the fluid he consumes, and the remaining fourth by the solid material he appropriates. It is therefore no figure of speech to say that food makes the man. We might even put the case in a stronger light and affirm that man is his food. It is strictly and literally true, that "A man who drinks beer thinks beer." We make this concession to the teetotallers, and will add that good sound beer is by no means a bad thought factor, whatever may be the intellectual value of the commodity commonly sold and consumed under that name! It can not obviously be a matter of indifference what a man eats and drinks. He is, in fact, choosing his animal and moral character when he selects his food. It is impossible for him to change his inherited nature, simply because modifications of development occupy more than an individual life, but he can help to make the particular stock to which he belongs more or less leery or fleshy or watery, and so on, by the way he feeds. We know the effect the feeding of animals has on their temper and very nature; how the dog fed on raw meat and chained up so that he can not work off the superfluous nitrogenized material by exercise becomes a savage beast, while the same creature fed on bread and milk would be tame as a lamb. The same law of results is applicable to man, and every living organism is propagated "in its kind" with a physical and mental likeness. This is the underlying principle of development. Applying the truth is beginning, though slowly and imperfectly, to find a recognition it has long been denied.

Photograph of an Explosion.

The United States Engineers recently photographed the explosion of a wreck, which was blown to pieces by submarine charges of dynamite, to ascertain, among other things, how long the spectacle really lasted. The result was exceedingly interesting. There were six cameras employed, and the instant the explosion, as also the several instants when the exposures were made by shutter, were electrically timed by a chronograph. A photograph taken one tenth of a second after the explosion showed the vessel broken, and a column of water 70 feet high; a photograph secured 1.5 seconds after the instant of explosion showed a column of water 160 feet high; a third photograph, taken 2.3 seconds after, showed the column at its full height 180 feet, while fragments of wreckage were in the air, but none had fallen to disturb the surface of the water; a fourth picture, taken 3.3 seconds after, showed the column falling, and the surface of the water disturbed; while a fifth photograph, secured 4.3 seconds after, showed that all was over.

Pure honey should be used unsparingly by every family. It is no longer a luxury to be enjoyed only by a few, but it is sufficiently cheap to be within the reach of all. It has properties which make it a valuable food. It differs from alcoholic stimulants, which dull the intellect—on the contrary it produces a bright intellect, as well as a healthy body. Children are very fond of honey, and one pound of it goes further than a pound of butter. It has the peculiarity of keeping good, while butter often becomes rancid, and injurious to health.—[American Bee Journal.]

At the Pan and Lace Exhibition now being held at the Aquarium in Brighton, England, is shown a magnificent antique rose Venetian point flounce, which measures over six yards in length, and is nearly three-quarters of a yard wide. It is in splendid condition, and its value is estimated at over 1,000 guineas; it is believed to be the finest specimen of this lace in the world, certainly the best in Europe. It has been heavily insured while on view.

Frank James says he never killed a man unless he felt it was positively necessary. And he never felt it necessary unless the man demurred at the very reasonable request to deliver up his money, watch and other valuables. Highwaymen are lied about as well as the rest of us.

It is asserted that in the three years ended 1880 there were no fewer than 252 theatres destroyed by fire, or partly so, resulting in 4,370 deaths, and about 3,400 injuries.

In a New England town the price of hewing gum has risen 10 per cent, since the reopening of the young ladies' seminaries.

Little Drops of Day.

"Poet! said a little boy of five summers, 'the stars, what are they? Are they not little drops of day?'"
Oh! ever glorious stars of night,
Heaven's poetry divine,
With what unchanging light and power,
They do forever shine!
To people, like unto us, I tell
In your bright realms away?
Or are they, as the child has asked,
But "little drops of day?"
We look up to them when the night
Their far-off home reveals;
And softly with a noiseless wing,
Their light upon us steals,
And then with wondrous will we gaze
Upon each glorious ray,
Until we think, like that sweet child,
That they are—"drops of day."
Yes, we are lost in wonder, while
We contemplate the power
That fixed you in your spheres and bade
You light the evening hour,
Unchanging, unchanging, ever there—
Fras the Milky Way:
We wonder not the child has asked
If they are—"drops of day."

If man's proud intellect be lost
In studying such high things,
It is not to be feared that
In their sweet twilight dreams
How could a little child but ask,
In his poetic way,
If those bright worlds that hang on high
Are—"little drops of day?"

The above beautiful lines were written and published in Godey's Lady's Book twenty-five years ago. The author is one of the members of the Stanford Bar.

Spelling Match.

Stand up, ye teachers, now and spell.
Spell phenakistoscope and knell. Or take some simple word as chilly, or gauger, or the garden lily. To spell such words as syllogism, and lachrymose and synchronism, and Pentateuch and saccharine, apocrypha and celau-dine, laciferous and cecity, jejune and homeopathy, paralysis and chloroform, rhinoceros and pachyderm, melempey-chosis, gherkins, basque, is certainly no easy task. Kaleidoscope and Tennessee, Kamachaka and dispensary, diphthong and erysipelas, and etiquette
and sassafras, infallible and platysm, allopathy and rheumatism, and cataclysm and beleaguer, twelfth, eightteenth, rendezvous, intriguer, and hosts of other words are found, on English and on classic ground. Thus,
Behring's Strait, and Michelmas, Thermopylae, Cordilleras, suite, hemorrhage, jalap, and Havana, cinquefoil and ipocauanha, and Rappahannock, Shenandoah, and Schuykill, and a thousand more are words that some good spellers miss, in dictionary land like this, nor need one think himself a scrooge if some of his good efforts fail.—[Texas Sittings.]

BABBLING WOMEN.—A law of Virginia, passed in the year 1662, reads as follows: "Whereas, many babbling women slander and scandalize their neighbors, for which their poor husbands are often involved in chargeable and vexatious suits and cast in great damages: Be it enacted, that in actions of slander occasioned by the wife after judgment passed for the damages, the woman shall be punished by ducking; and if the slander be enormous as to be adjudged at greater damages than 500 pounds of tobacco, then the woman to suffer a ducking for each 500 pounds of tobacco adjudged against her husband, if he refuses to pay the tobacco."

"Have you ever before been punished by the law?" asked an Austin justice of a colored culprit. "Yes, I called a man a liar, and I had to pay a fine." "Is that the only time you have come in conflict with the law?"
"Now dat yer speaks ob hit, judge, I bleeves I was in de penitentiary for ten years, if I disremember myself."

The killing of Rev. Donahue of Ohio, a Catholic Priest, by one of his parishioners, is a sad commentary on poor humanity. The priest, not satisfied with accusing his parishioner of theft, on being denounced a liar, struck him with a cane and was in turn struck with a monkey wrench and killed.

"Mary Jane," said Dickey, "isn't this weather too cold for potatoes?"
"Dickey," said Mary Jane, "it isn't cold that takes off the potatoes; it's consumption." "O," said Dickey, "I never lived on a farm."—[Courier-

The Meaning of It.

Would you know the meaning of the political revolution which struck its first blow in Ohio in October and swept through Pennsylvania, New York, Massachusetts and Colorado on the 7th?

It means these four things:

I. Reduce the expenses of every branch of the Federal Government to a basis of simplicity, economy and honesty!

II. Abolish the Internal Revenue abomination!

III. Make the tariff simple and rational and just sufficient to provide for the wants of an honest and economical Administration in time of peace!

IV. No subsidies, no jobs and above all no stealing, either by the Administration and its agents or by Congress and its employees!

This is the meaning and the purpose of this mighty overturn.
Is the democracy wise enough and high-minded enough to execute this peremptory mandate with fidelity and courage? We shall see. The occasion is great; and we are happy to add, the future is hopeful.—[N. Y. Sun.]

The flesh of the sheep is the best meat in the world; it is also the poorest. A lean, thin sheep that has outlived its usefulness as a wool bearer, and been cut down by the ruthless knife as a cumberer of the pasture ground, and consigned to the pot in the vain hope of macerating its toughened fibres, affords an ansavory and unpalatable meal, which has taught many to loathe the very name of mutton and abominate its very smell. On the contrary, not the aromatic flavors of venison the gamey richness of the wild fowl, or the sweet juices of a Short-horn sirloin, can surpass the virtues of Southdown marrow and fatness. It is sweeter to the palate, more digestible, and more nutritious, than any other variety of meat food.—[Journal of Agriculture.]

BUSINESS PEOPLE.—"Widder Jenkins," said an Ohio farmer, as he bustled into her house one morning,
"I am a man of business. I'm worth $10,000 and want you for a wife. I give you three minutes in which to answer." "I don't want ten seconds, old man!" she replied, as she shook out the dishcloth; "I'm a woman of business, worth $16,000 and wouldn't marry you if you were the last man on earth! I give you a minute and a half to git!" He got.

"No," he said, "it isn't for the honor or the profit of the thing that I desire to be elected assessor. That durned ape that poisoned my dog has all his property in my district, and if I get the assessors you can be sure he'll pay his share of the taxes."

MANUFACTURED BY W. E. GANN, M. D.,

MONTICELLO, KY.

The world is filled with the wonderful, beautiful and intricate inventions of man, yet all the combined talent and genius that the world has ever known has never produced anything that can compare with "Dr. Gann's Remedies." Medical skill and science have, as yet, failed to discover any thing equal to them, for the cure of the diseases for which they are recommended. As their virtues and uses are proved by thousands throughout the length and breadth of the land, and as Standard Family Medicines, they cannot be excelled, and are fully substantiated by the strongest testimonials.

For Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhoea, Jaundice, Impurity of the Blood, Fever and Ague, Malaria, and all Diseases caused by Derangement of Liver, Bowels and Kidneys.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.
Bad Breath; Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; flows generally costive, sometimes alternating with lax;
the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy,
with considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of leaving unfinished which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weakness and debility; nervous, easily startled;
feet cold or burning, sometimes a prickly sensation
of the skin exists; spirits are low and despondent, and, although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it—in fact, distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but others have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear.

Persons Traveling or Living in Unhealthy Localities, by taking a dose occasionally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Bilious attacks, Dyspepsia, Nausea, Drowsiness, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will purge like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage.

If you have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or sleepless at night, take a dose and you will be relieved.

Time and Doctors' Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator

in the House!

For, whatever the ailment may be, a thoroughly safe, purgative, alternative and tonic can never be out of place. The remedy is harmless and does not interfere with business or pleasures.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE.

And has all the power and efficacy of Calomel or Quinine, without any of the injurious after effects.

A Governor's Testimony.

Simmons' Liver Regulator has been in use in my family for some time, and I am satisfied it is a valuable addition to the medical science.

J. C. STUART, Governor of Ala.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Ga., says: Have derived some benefit from the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator, and wish to give it a further trial.

"The only thing that never fails to Relieve," I have found, is Simmons' Liver Regulator. I have used it for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent Simmons' Liver Regulator has. I have been sorely afflicted with it, and would send further for such a medicine, and would advise all who are similarly afflicted to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve.

P. M. JACOB, Minneapolis, Minn.

Dr. T. W. Mason, of Ky., from actual experience in the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator in my practice, I have been so much satisfied to use and prescribe it as a purgative medicine.

TESTIMONIALS OF LINCOLN CO. FARMERS!

THE ALBION

HARROW, CULTIVATOR & SEEDER.

Three First-Class Implements Combined in One.

STANFORD, KY., Oct. 31, 1882.

GEO. D. WEAREN—Dear Sir:—The Albion Spring Tooth Harrow,

Now that the Congressional elections are over, the mind of the average Kentuckian naturally turns to the next chance he will have to exercise his grand prerogative as an American citizen and by doing so turn up an honest penny as the case may be. This being the fact and having hallowed ourselves hoarse over the grand results of the past week, we ponder to the tastes aforesaid and launch out into the canvass for Governor. At present there are but three candidates for the honored position: Hon. T. Lurens Jones, Hon. Proctor Knott and our own beloved and popular choice, Hon. Michael Henry Owsley. Beginning with Col. Jones, because age takes the precedence over beauty, we will give in their turn excellent steel engravings of these gentlemen, which we have obtained by an enormous outlay of hard earned lucre, and here you are:

THOMAS LAURENS JONES.

To those who know the honorable gentleman, it is the work of superfluity to place his name under this very excellent portrait, but like the boy, who drew some pictures and placed beneath them, "This is a House" and "This is a Cow," we do so for the sake of those who have not sufficient appreciation of art to distinguish intelligently. It may be claimed by those who believe that Gov. Black burn has been rather prolix in the pardoning business, that there is too much philanthropy and sentimentality displayed in the handsome features given above, but we can say this for Col. Jones, that while he can be as tender and as gentle as a woman, he can also be as stern and as unyielding as a tiger, as Judge Beckner and Charley Kincaid can in sorrow testify. We will therefore remark to those who contemplate "killing their man" with the hope of obtaining a pardon from him when he gets to be governor, is rather a dangerous business for more reasons than one, and which are not now necessary to be stated. Col. Jones, if we are correctly informed, was born in South Carolina in the year 306 n. c. We do not think there can be any doubt about the date since we have heard of him as a candidate for governor ever since we were a little boy and we are getting "along right smartly in years," the first thing you know. Then he has served two terms in Congress, and during the war fought, bled and died for his country inside of a Yankee prison. Colonel Jones now lives at Newport, when he is not in the mountains making speeches for Tom Henry, and is there dubbed by an envious few as the Duke of that delectable little city. But badinage aside, Col. Jones is a really light-toned, honorable gentleman, who will if he succeeds in reaching the gubernatorial personation, make the State an executive that will be an honor and a credit to it. He has a good, strong following and may be able to achieve his highest ambition. Who knows?

SINCE 1856, Iowa has been a republican State, for the most part keeping a solid delegation of that party in Congress. The cyclone of indignation against republican methods and jobs swept over the old State last week and four democrats are elected to the Lower House. In Illinois we gain four districts and in Wisconsin for the first time since the Fremont campaign, a majority of the Congressmen elect are democrats. In Indiana sends ten democrats to Congress, the republicans getting only four of the delegation, while Kansas and Colorado for the first time since they were admitted into the Union, elect democratic governors. We could continue this for a column but we actually get too full for utterance. Truly it was a "famous victory."

The steamboat Granite State which was pressed into the service of the State to convey the Militia from Catlettsburg to Maysville, has presented a bill for $531 for transportation and $500 for damages. This is pretty steep for both items, especially for the damages since less than a half dozen bullet holes were made in the boat. The Auditor has therefore very wisely refused to pay the bill till a committee can confer with the Captain of the boat.

LOUISE MONTAGUE, who lays claim to being the prettiest woman in America and who rode around on an elephant in Forepaugh's circus advertised as such, seems to have a hard road to travel. She says that the old showman promised her $10,000 for the season to so exhibit herself but has refused to pay it, thereby rendering necessary an appeal to the laws. Before that case is decided she again comes before the court, and swearing out a warrant against her husband, has him arrested for desertion. He swears he will stay in jail till the end of time before he will live with her again, as any place even at the devil, is preferable to sojourning with a woman who is a virago and a termagant. Louise surely must have been born under an evil star, for we have never heard of her having any good luck but once and that was when she got a little piece of skin knocked off her pretty leg in a railroad collision, for which she was allowed $500 damages.

MESSRS. MILLER, WHALLEN AND FLEMING of Louisville charge that Judge Finley of the Whitley Circuit, was guilty of the most disgraceful acts of bull-dozing at Williamsburg on election day. With bowie knife in hand and with pistols buckled around him, he terrorized the negroes and swore that none of them should vote the democratic ticket. An effort will be made to investigate the matter in the U. S. Court, and failing, the State Courts will take cognizance of the alleged reprehensible conduct of Finley.

The latest returns show that Mahone will have six and the democrats four of the Congressional delegation of Virginia. The mother of Presidents and of Statesmen seems destined to sink still lower in public estimation and be known for her degraded condition instead of occupying the proud position that for one hundred years made her citizens honored and respected of all men.

AFTER a long and continued effort to find out the vote of Owsley and Jackson, we have learned from Col. A. R. Dyche, of the Mountain Echo, that Ewell's majority is 387 in the former and 347 in the latter county. Taking this as correct, Phil Thompson's majority is 872; not so bad for an off year.

If the last election had been for president and the States had gone as they did, the electoral vote which is now 401 would have stood 310 democratic to 91 republican and readjuster, and the Louisville Commercial consoles itself by remarking: But then it was not for president.

FOLGER was in a smash-up on the Hudson River R. R. Tuesday, but escaped unhurt. In another little smash-up a week before he did not fare so well as he was buried clear out of sight by a man named Cleveland and two hundred thousand others of his fellow citizens.

It is estimated that there will be fifty contested election cases in the House of Representatives next Congress. There will always be contested cases by the score so long as the contestants are allowed full pay during the contest. The law ought to be changed.

TILLMAN of South Carolina the democrat who was unseated by Small, is sent back to Congress; and Chalmers of Mississippi who was turned out as a democrat goes back as a republican. Chalmers seems to be entirely without principle.

THE latest table mostly from official returns, gives the democrats 196 members in the next House and the republicans 129, a majority of 67. Was there ever such a cyclone as that of November 7th, 1882?

THE Covington Commonwealth, one of our most prized exchanges, has added several cubits to its stature, thereby indicating that it is being patronized according to its well merited deserts.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.
—John D. White's majority is now put down at 1,583.
—The poll-tax is $4 at Winchester, and 45 cents per $100 for general purposes.
—The annual session of the State Grange of Kentucky will be held at Eminence December 12.
—There have been 2,006 cases and 15 deaths of yellow fever at Brownsville, Tex., since the epidemic began.
—Gov. Underwood's paper, the Cincinnati Daily News, will appear next Monday. Emmett G. Logan will be managing editor.
—No new cases of yellow fever at Pensacola and no deaths. This is the first cessation of the epidemic since September 3.
—At Barnesville, Ga., Joe Cole, at the circus, gave an elephant a chew of tobacco. The animal at once killed him with his trunk. Served him right.
—The democratic elect Henry Raub Superintendent of Public Instruction of Illinois by 2,868 majority over his republican competitor, Chas. T. Stratton.
—Governor-Elect Patton of Pennsylvania intends to be surrounded by religious influences. He has appointed a prominent Methodist minister his private secretary.

—Pattison's plurality over the republican candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania is 39,000.
—Five persons have died at Ashland from the result of wounds received from the fire of the militia.
—Brave Bear, the Indian Chief who murdered a white man, was hung at Yankton, D. T., Wednesday.
—The National Grange is in session at Indianapolis, and 32 States are represented. The interest in the concern does not seem to have entirely died out.
—Sergeant John Hurley of Maysville, who was wounded at Catlettsburg during the late troubles, by the accidental discharge of his pistol, died this week.
—Geo. Webb of Somerset, has issued a writ of injunction against the proprietor of the Skating Rink for allowing his son Charles to skate there and break his ribs from falling.

—The Coroner's jury at Ashland have found a verdict that the firing by the State troops was wanton and reckless, and that Maj. Allen, in command, was responsible for the loss of life.
—The name of Barren county ought to be changed. Call it Fruitful or Prolific county. It is full of Woods and such a Democratic mast as was never heard of in any region.—[Yeoman.]

—George Pearce, a thirteen-year-old Greenville county boy, without assistance cultivated ten acres of ground, producing 300 bushels of corn; half acre of sugar cane, yielding 40 gallons of syrup and half acre of watermelons.

—The vote in North Carolina is so close between Bennett and Dockery, for Congress-man-at-large, it will probably take the official vote of all the counties to decide the result. The chances, however, seem to favor Bennett (Dem.) by 500 majority.

—The upheaval results as to the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress in changing it from nineteen republicans and eight democrats to sixteen republicans and twelve democrats, and the democrats have captured the lower house of the State Legislature.

—Joseph Spaulding, a farmer living near Rane, Indiana, knocked his son and wife senseless with a whiffletree and then cut their throats with a razor. He closed the tragedy by severing his own jugular. His mother-in-law a few hours afterward discovered the three dead bodies on the kitchen floor.

—Senator Vest, of Missouri, says: "I think with Carlisle for Speaker, John G. Thompson of Ohio, for Sergeant-at-Arms, Stenger of Pennsylvania, for Clerk, Field of Georgia, for Doorkeeper, and the Postmaster from the Pacific Coast, there could not be any grumbling as heretofore. The entire delegation from my State, save one, is for Carlisle."

—Wolford's majority is about 2,200. The following are the members-elect of the next Kentucky delegation: 1st District, Oscar Turner, D.; 2d, James F. Clay, D.; 3d, John E. Hallsell, D.; 4th, T. H. Robertson, D.; 5th, Albert S. Willis, D.; 6th, John G. Carlisle, D.; 7th, J. C. S. Blackburn, D.; 8th, Phil. B. Thompson, D.; 9th, W. W. Culbertson, R.; 10th, John D. White, R.; 11th, Frank Wolford, D.

—The Legislature of Georgia elected Hon. Pope Barrow to succeed Hon. B. H. Hill in the United States Senate. His principal opponent was B. H. Hill, Jr., son of the dead Senator, who declined to accept the appointment as successor to his father when tendered him by Gov. Colquitt. Barrow is forty-three years old, and a representative of the young democracy. His term will expire March 4th, 1883. For the long term, beginning on the same day, ex-Gov. Colquitt was chosen.

—According to Prof. Pickett's report as Superintendent of Public Instruction, just issued for the year ending June 30th, 1881, the number of school districts was 6,344, a gain of 69 districts. The number of children enrolled was 483,404, a gain over the previous year of 4,850. The highest attendance reported was 238,440, showing a decrease of 6,918. The difference between the number of children reported to the Superintendent and that reported to the Auditor for the year was 75,057. The total average per capita for the year was $2.24 an increase of 0.16 in the colored department for the same year, the number of school districts was 804, an increase over the previous year of 31 districts. The number of children enrolled was 70,234, an increase of 3,670 over the previous year. The per capita for these years was 58 cents, an increase over the previous year of 10 cents.

GARRARD COUNTY.
Lancaster.
—Two more weddings in the near future.
—Is this cold enough for you? Don't shoot.
—The brick work on the new Bank building (?) has begun.
—Mr. LaRue-Thomas has been talking Life Insurance to the boys for several days.
—Tom Palmer sings Fritz's Lullaby with a great deal of expression since Sunday night. It's a girl and weighs ten pounds.
—Six men met in the drug store of W. C. Bailey Wednesday, and on comparing ages it was found the aggregate was 444 years.

—Misses Mary and Kate Hemphill of Nicholasville, were at the wedding. Mrs. Martha Crandall and Mrs. Sallie Durham of Terre Haute, Ind., are visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Smith.

—The marriage of Jas. C. Hemphill to Miss Sallie Curry as foreshadowed in my last, took place Wednesday in the presence of a large crowd of friends and acquaintances. The ceremony was performed by Eld. Jesse Walden. They were attended by Mr. Hugh Logan and Miss Mamie Partrick; Mr. J. J. Stormes and Miss Alice Dunn; Mr. Will C. Wherritt and Miss Nellie Duncan. Adam Dunn, Solo. The bride wore an elegant dress of electric blue satin and velvet, hat to match; terra cotta gloves. The bridesmaids wore garnet satin and velvet suits. Immediately after the ceremony the party left for Danville in carriages where they dined at Glicker's, the bride and groom going thence to the Eastern cities. Among the numerous, handsome and costly presents we notice a set of diamonds, comprising bracelet and earrings, from the groom; bedroom suit of furniture from his mother; silver water service from the groomsmen and W. S. Miller.

MT. VERNON DEPARTMENT.

Sam. M. Burdett, Editor.

—This is Winter weather.
—Owsley county gave Ewell about 387 majority. Jackson county gave Ewell 505 votes; Thompson 158. Ewell's majority 347.

—The squeal of the dying porker is now occasionally heard and the delightful odor of the cooking spare-rib steals through the kitchen window.

—Eld. J. L. Allen preached a splendid sermon last Sunday night. At its conclusion Mr. Thomas Moore went forward and made the good confession.

—The four colored convicts that escaped from the camp on the Kentucky Central, have been captured with the exception of Hagan Johnson, who is said to be a very bad negro.

—Mr. J. L. Whitehead is making big arrangements for the holiday trade. At the usual time and at the usual rates, he will tell the readers of the INTERIOR JOURNAL all about it.

—Trains on the Knoxville extension will run through to Williamsburg on the 27th inst. It is said that passenger trains going North will then stop at Mt. Vernon "twenty minutes for breakfast."

—Mrs. Judge Pearl of London, is visiting relatives here this week. Mr. John Pearl of Pikeville, editor of that paper, the Pikeville Enterprise, is visiting friends and relatives here. There is a good deal of enterprise about John. Dr. J. J. Brown left Monday for Missouri. Mr. C. Pittman left for the same State with his family yesterday. Mr. Alf Burnett gave a good entertainment to a large audience in the court-house here Wednesday night.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Knights of Honor at their lodge-room in Hustonville, Nov. 3, 1882, the death of Bro. R. W. Bradley was announced.

A committee was appointed to report resolutions expressive of the great loss of the order in his death: WHEREAS, R. W. Bradley was a charter member of Hustonville Lodge, No. 233 K. of H., and has been called away by death; Therefore, Resolved: That we bow in meek submission to the will of the Almighty and Allwise Ruler, who hath called him hence, to be with us in our labors and councils no more forever, we will each bear in grateful remembrance, his fidelity, kindness and wisdom.

Resolved, that we heartily tender his family earnest assurance of our sympathy in this sad hour when they were called to give up for all time, one so dear, so faithful and true to all the relations of life.

Resolved, that a copy of this paper be sent to the family of the deceased and same be published in INTERIOR JOURNAL.

GEO. F. PEACOCK, W. R. WILLIAMS, J. M. COOK, Committee.

At a meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church of Stanford, on the 10th day of Nov. 1882, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, God in his Providence has taken from our midst Mrs. John M. McRoberts, a useful and beloved member of this Society, who died at her home in Stanford, Ky., Nov. 3, 1882, and

WHEREAS, During her protracted and painful illness her christian character was even more clearly revealed than during the period of health, for in the sunshine of life, christian integrity may be conspicuous but it is only when the shadows darken the horizon that the faith and fortitude which marks martyrdom stands confessed.

Resolved, 1. That we recognize in the character of Mrs. McRoberts much that is lovely and worthy of imitation. She was modest and sincere, combining the purest and simplest delicacy of feeling with the moral courage of a steadfast faith.

Resolved, 2. That while we bow submissive to this trying Providence of God who doth all things well, we feel our loss most keenly and will sorely miss from our circle her presence and counsel, and helping hands of our departed sister.

Resolved, 3. That while resolutions of respect can avail nothing to perpetuate her memory which will live in those good deeds that derive their brightest hues from true christian faith, yet that it may be known that this Society does not fail to appreciate all that was lovely and noble in the life and character of this christian woman, this brief testimonial is ordered to be spread upon our minutes, not that her memory needs it but that we may honor ourselves by showing in a simple way our love of christian virtue and our affection for the departed.

PERSONAL.
—MISS SALLIE GREEN is visiting in Manchester.
—MISS MATTIE NUNNELLEY is visiting her aunt, Mrs. P. P. Nunnelley.
—MRS. MARY McELROY of Lebanon came up yesterday to visit her brother Rev. J. S. McElroy.
—MISS EFFIE WARREN, who has been teaching school near Highland, returned home Wednesday quite sick.
—MRS. GEN. T. T. GARRARD of Manchester returned home yesterday after a short visit to her children here.
—MISS BELLE GIVENS and Mrs. Dr. Ed. Alcorn of Hustonville were guests of their sister, Mrs. Capt. W. F. McKinney.
—MRS. W. O. PARK, who has been visiting relatives here for some weeks, returned to her home in Missouri Wednesday.
—WE REGRET to learn that Squire Hiram Roberts, an honored and worthy citizen of Crab Orchard, is confined to his bed and not expected to recover.
—JUDGE W. G. BAILEY was wheeled down town in his invalid chair yesterday, the first time he has appeared since his leg was broken several months ago.
—DR. J. B. S. FRIEBER of Monticello has received such an earnest appeal from the citizens of Kirksville to return there, that he has decided to do so and will remove thither about December 1st.
—MISS JULIA LOVE of Mayville, who has been the guest of Miss Panthea McKinney, left with her yesterday to visit Mrs. J. S. Sims at Flemingsburg. Miss Love is a most lovely young lady and is a decided favorite here.
—MR. WALLER CHENAU of Fort Scott, Kansas, returned home yesterday. His visit here was to secure subscriptions to the National Bank stock there which is to be increased from $50,000 to $150,000. Its surplus fund is now $40,000.
—MRS. W. H. ANDERSON and family left Wednesday for Harper, Ky., where her husband is in the mercantile business and where they will much to the regret of their friends here, make their future home. Miss Carrie Lytle accompanied them, but only goes on a visit.

MR. W. R. CARSON offers his dwelling and business house for rent for the next year. Call on or address him at Stanford.

MARRIAGES.
—Miss Susie Shelton, of Boyle county, was married to Mr. Ott, of Missouri, on Tuesday last.
—GEO. ABE Buford was at Crab Orchard this week, we learn for the purpose of getting married. But he didn't; and thereby hangs a tale.
—At Owingsville, Ky., on Tuesday morning last, Mr. Geo. W. Jones, a very excellent young business man of McKinney, was married to Miss Bettie Young, the pretty and amiable sister of Mr. E. T. Young of this county. We wish them a bon voyage over life's billowy sea.

DEATHS.
—Mrs. Emma V., wife of Eld. B. H. Cozine, editor of the Apostolic Times, is dead.
RELIGIOUS.
—At a meeting of the Methodist Episcopalians at New York, the Kentucky appropriations made were $5,000 for the State and $2,700 for Lexington.
—Rev. N. B. Johnson of the Baptist Church died in Madison county Monday, aged 61. He was pastor for several years of the Crab Orchard Church.
—Several years ago Miss Cornelia Rout, daughter of Rev. G. H. Rout, commenced teaching a few colored children who met on Sunday afternoons at the parsonage. The school grew into quarters and is now held at the Presbyterian church. It now numbers 75 or 80 scholars, and gives employment to an efficient corps of teachers.
—Eld. J. A. Harding in the Gospel Advocate sits down pretty heavily on religious conventions in general and the recent annual convention of the American Christian Society at Lexington in particular. He says it was only a frolic which cost over $5,000; in individual traveling expenses, when the collections yearly do not amount to more than that sum. Bro. J. R. Warren is in full sympathy with the spirit of the criticism, which we cannot publish owing to its length, even to oblige him.

GO TO THE "TWIN FRONTS."

THE TRACK of the L. & N. has reached Williamsburg and regular trains, we are told, will be put on Nov. 27th, to that point.
WE PUBLISH short notices of deaths free but for obituaries, resolutions of respect and articles of that character a nominal charge of 5 cents per line is made.
NOTICE.—There is missing from our files a copy of the issue of Nov. 8th, 1878. We will send the INTERIOR JOURNAL three months free to the person furnishing us with it.
JUDGE OWSELY went to Liberty yesterday, to try a writ of habeas corpus for bail sued out by one Crockett, who is in jail for the murder of old man Woods at the August election.
FULL and complete line of furniture and house-furnishing goods generally, oil painting, chromes, frames, &c., may be found at B. K. Wearen's at any time. Prices very reasonable. Call.
CANNED GOODS.—We carry the largest and most select stock of canned goods in the city, and are prepared to offer extra inducement by dozen or case. California goods a specialty. McAllister & Bright.
HOW THIEVES are getting entirely too numerous in these parts. The other night Hon. G. A. Lackey lost a fine hog; G. C. Givens two and one gentleman who killed a fine one and left it on the roof of his meat-house to cool, awoke next morning to find all gone except the backbone. A few dozens of lead well administered, will put an end to such work.
A TRUE FISH STORY.—Little Nannerle Campbell, just ten years old, was fishing all alone a day or two since on the ferry-boat at the principal landing of Rockcastle Springs. She "set out" the reel pole and held a common one. Directly she caught a large 4 lb. white Salmon, while in a few moments more, a 19-inch Pike carried the other pole down the river. With unusual presence of mind, she jumped into a small boat, rowed after and reeled in this gem of fish. She is invariably successful and a true follower of Isaac Walton.
NEVER TOO LATE TO MEND.—In Mr. 1867, Mrs. Sillie A. Higgins of Crab Orchard, obtained a divorce from her husband, Judge John A. Higgins, and for fifteen long years they have lived separate and apart, meeting occasionally as strangers. But the hearts that truly love never forget and these two being no exception, they decided to correct the mistake of their lives by petitioning the Court to set aside the judgment of divorce, which was done on Wednesday last and the twain resumed their former relations of man and wife. They are both getting along sharply in years now, but in romance they seem as "young as they used to be."

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.
—Milton Rany sold to D. N. Prewitt 10 head 385-lb. hogs at 6¢ cents.
—Miller & Francis, real estate agents, sold to James Rice of Madison, Ohio Newland's farm of 192 acres near Crab Orchard, for $4,100.
—The Country Gentleman, the best agricultural paper published, is always a welcome visitor to this office and we would advise farmers to take it. We will receive subscribers for it at $3, or will send it with the SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL for $5.
—LEXINGTON COURT.—About 400 head of cattle on the market, and very few of these good ones. Cattle brought in the main 4 cents, a very few going as high as 4½ cts per pound. A good many remained unsold. The mule and horse market was active. Broke mules sold from $125 to $175 per head. Fat hogs were bringing from 6 to 6½ cents, and were not as active as they have been heretofore.
—CINCINNATI.—Good cattle are firm, common in only fair demand. The latter are quoted at $1.75 to $2.75; good to choice butchers, $4 to $4.75; common to choice shippers, $4.25 to $5; stockers, $3.75 to $4.40. Hogs seem to have a downward tendency. Best shippers and selected butchers sell at $7 to $7.25; fair to good packers, $6.65 to $7; common, $5.50 to $6.35. Sheep are in fair demand at 2½ to 4½; lambs 4 to $4 cents.

LINCOLN COUNTY.
White Oak School.
—On Tuesday evening at White Oak, the class-mates of Misses Nannie and Sallie Retherford prepared for their a social entertainment. The chapel was beautifully decorated in appropriate emblems, with flowers and evergreens. Quite a number of friends were present to attest the high appreciation in which the young ladies were held in the community, and to bid them farewell on the eve of their departure for their new home in Texas. Among the strangers present were Miss Jennie Bailey of Tennessee and Mrs. S. Johnson of Missouri. Messrs C. C. Withers and J. W. Stone, in their polished and gentlemanly manner, entertained the guests in a way that might have done credit to more experienced hands.
—Near McCormack's Church.
—The squeak of the dying hog is heard in the land.
—Go to Mr. John Bailey's store at Tullahoma for cheap goods.
—Wm. McCormack, Jr., returned from Casey Tuesday, where he has been buying hogs. He purchased 50 averaging 111 lbs., at 6½ to 6 cents.
—We are indebted to Mr. H. T. Bush for report of the sale of Daniel Stag on the 14th: Fat hogs $6.75 per hundred; small hogs $4.00 to $6.50; yearling cattle 4½ cts; 2-year-olds 5½ cts.
—A little child of Mr. McEe is dead of whooping cough. Steve Kelly, an old dandy of about 80 years, died last week. He had many white friends who visited him while sick and carried him delicacies to eat.
—Mrs. Hopper, wife of Rev. R. Hopper of Lebanon, is on a visit to her step-daughter, Mrs. Ed Carter. Her friends are very sorry to learn that she is in very bad health. Mr. Z. Hughes is on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. W. F. Royalty of Middleburg.
—I wish to contradict the statement that is going the rounds that your correspondent is a preacher. Now, it does not need early going that because this news comes from near a church, the informant must be a preacher. Banish the thought! I am not a preacher nor would I be one for $1,000. Now indeed can I sympathize with the slandered Mary Jane as she deserves.

Highland.
—Sore eyes and whooping cough are epidemic here now.
—The funeral sermon of Hayden Long which was to have been preached at Wm. Long's next Sunday has been postponed because of sickness in Long's family. Miss Mary Young's funeral will be preached at Mt. Moriah, Sunday by Eld. M. Owens.
—John Butt sold to Wm. Cash one yoke of oxen for $72.50; J. F. Rigney sold to same a lot of corn at $2 per barrel. Rev. E. E. Bonta has moved to his circuit near Harrodsburg after selling part of his corn at $2.25 and balance at $2. The house and eight acres of land that he left can be had low by calling on H. P. Young.
—C. M. Young is still confined to his bed with fever. H. P. Young and E. E. Young are talking of moving to Madison. Capt. John Morgan of Madison and family of eight children is here and will with Mr. Quisenberry and wife leave for Kansas on the 23d. Miss Eliza Young will also accompany them. Dr. Davis of Tennessee, and Dr. Barber have formed a partnership.

Crab Orchard.
—Alf. Burnett played before a crowded house last night at this place.
—Mr. Fields, living on Judge Santley's farm near town, cut his foot with an ax while splitting wood a few days ago and is in a critical condition.
—Miss Bettie Dooren is visiting the Misses Noel of Lancaster. J. G. Ballard of Danville was here Sunday. Judge Burch and family have moved to their farm near Stanford.
—Gen. A. Buford of Louisville, was the guest of his relative Mrs. M. Gornley, this week. We know a rich joke on the General, but faithfully promised not to put him in the papers this time.
—Some of our young men take their girls to church with marked regularity, and seem very happy as they walk along, saying, perhaps, to themselves, "I'm so glad Salvation is free," but wait until a show comes around and that poor girl, oh, where is she? At home, and her gallant beau enjoying the show.

CASEY COUNTY.
Liberty.
—J. Clay B. own killed a deer the day after the election that weighed 320 pounds. It was the largest one that has been killed in this county for a number of years.
—The Railroad Committee for this county met at the Court-house last Saturday. I enclose proceedings handed me by Chas. Geo. E. Stone. Committee appointed to obtain the right of way through Casey county for the Cincinnati, Green River and Nashville R. R. Co. met the Court-house in Liberty, Nov. 11, and reports were made by the various sub-committees of their progress in obtaining right of way, donations of ties, timbers, materials, &c. The reports were very favorable and judging from them there will be little or no trouble in obtaining the right of way on either of the contemplated routes through the county, and liberal donations of material necessary for the construction. The committee from all parts of the county were present and the people generally seem to be awake to the importance of doing all in their power to secure the road through the county, a large majority favoring and desiring the river route. The committee adjourned to meet again next Saturday to make a final report, and they desire and invite the president of the road, Mr. E. Zimmerman, to be present at their next meeting.
—In August last Casey county voted republican, but on the 7th of this month she came to the front with 191 majority for Wolford. We all say with one voice, Praise the Lord. Casey is again a democrat county, and we have every reason to believe that she will remain democratic and give Judge Owseley a majority of 1,200 at the next August election for Governor. In fact we expect to give him a solid vote from this county regardless of party or politics, and you may depend upon it he is dead sure to be our Governor. The Carr is off the track and so badly wrecked that it will never be able to reach Washington City. Reports have reached here that the Carr has gone into the Mammoth Cave to spend the remainder of his life in solitude. No wonder, his own county went back on him to the tune of 1,200. Since the election news reached this place our republican friends have been low down, but the democrats have been jubilant.
On Thursday night we celebrated the election of Wolford by firing away, sky-rockets, Roman candles, &c. Good crowd in town and all enjoyed it. On last Friday night Judge J. B. Stone and his estimable lady gave a hop in honor of General Wolford, which eclipsed anything that has taken place in our social circle this Fall. There were about thirty of our young folks present; the evening was lovely and the music made by Messrs. Frank Warriner, Col. J. W. Whipp and Dr. O. H. McRoberts, was rapturous. The dance began at eight and continued until one, and we have never seen young folks enjoy themselves so well as they did on that occasion. Judge and Mrs. Stone have the heartfelt thanks of all that were present for their unbounded hospitality. May they live long and ever be happy. On Saturday night at dark the news reached here that all the democrats from Middleburg would be here in torch-light procession. Our town was illuminated as if by magic from one end to the other, and at 7 o'clock Col. Howe McAninch came in advance, a band of music next and behind them two hundred solid democrats, all bearing torches. The music was good and cheer after cheer went up for Wolford and the democratic victory. Our old town put on such a grand appearance that it was hard to realize that it was the same place. A bonfire was brightly burning on the public square, and anvils were being fired that sounded like cannons as the procession came into town. They marched around the Court-house, formed a line in front of the Napier Hotel and were addressed by Geo. E. Stone, Col. Howe McAninch, A. B. Clark, W. V. Reppert, A. B. Williams and your correspondent. All made short speeches; after which Col. McAninch announced that they would march to the residence of Col. Silas Adams and give him a chance to join the democratic army of the Lord, but when we reached there Col. A. was not to be found. The procession marched back to the public square and sang "When I can read my title clear to mansions in the skies" and disbanded. We have never witnessed so grand an occasion in Liberty. It was truly a time of rejoicing. The democrats had a grand ratification at Middleburg, on Friday night; suppose your correspondent from there will give you full particulars.

1831 CULTIVATOR 1883
—AND—
COUNTRY GENTLEMAN!
—THE BEST OF THE—
Agricultural Weeklies.
The Country Gentleman is the leading journal of American agriculture. In amount and practical value of contents, in extent and ability of correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication it is the first rank. It is believed to be no superior in either of the three chief divisions of Farm Crops and Processes, Horticulture and Fruit-Growing, Live Stock and Dairying.
While it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomology, Bee-keeping, Game and Game Laws, Veterinary Medicine, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireweed, Domestic Economy, and a summary of the News of the Week. Its Market Reports are unusually complete, and much attention is paid to the Prospects of Crops, as they relate to the most important of all questions—When to Buy and when to Sell. It is liberally illustrated and is intended to supply the constantly increasing demand, and in the best sense of the term, a Live Agricultural Newspaper.
The Volume of the Country Gentleman for 1882 is now on hand, and by increasing its size from 24 to 28 pages weekly, but the terms still continue as follows: when paid strictly in advance: One copy one year, $2.00; four copies, $7.00, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the club; ten copies, $20.00, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the club. All new subscribers for 1883 paying in advance will receive the paper weekly from receipt of subscription to January 1, 1883, without charge. Specimen copies free. Call Address: LUTHER TUCKER & SON, Publishers, Albany, N. Y.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE!
As administrator of James Williams, dec'd., I will on Monday, Nov. 20th, 1882, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 2 P. M., sell to the highest bidder, the Hotel in Hustonville, Ky.
now occupied by S. C. Powell. The building contains about 20 rooms. There is a splendid garden also a commodious stable and lot with never-failing well on it, also a vacant lot across the street opposite the stable. Parties desiring such property would find it to their interest to see this before purchasing elsewhere. It is surrounded by as rich blue-grass, stock-raising country as there is in the State. There are 2 churches 2 regular, several select schools in the place. The people are generous and accessible to a fault. There is a constant stream of commercial and other travel through the place. Everything thing tends to make it one of the most desirable and profitable hotels in the State. Don't forget the day; every body comes. Terms made known on the day of sale.
